CHILDRENS PLAY PROGRAMME FRANCHISED BUSINESS
WILTSHIRE

Reference: FR/2048/WT

THE BUSINESS:

This franchised business provides a structured, active physical play programme for children between the ages of 6 months and 7 years. It has been designed to develop children's agility, balance and co-ordination during their formative years and also their self-confidence, and independence. We are informed that there are currently some 330-member children who join in with the classes.

Interested parties will after reaching agreement with the owner of the business be introduced to the franchisor for approval. Franchisees are given full training and support. In addition Franchisees and Leaders attend one-day training courses and all staff attend regular training workshops and seminars.

AGENTS
COMMENTS:

This is a mobile business in which franchisees provide the programme via weekly 45-minute sessions at various centres within their agreed territory each week. Franchisees generate income through the weekly session fees, additional opportunities via the sale of company-merchandised products.

The franchisor has been trading since 1979 and is a full member of the British Franchise Association, the highest membership category giving the buyer of this business confidence in the franchisor's business.

One would imagine that this is a perfect opportunity for an individual who also has children and wants a perfect work life balance.
